TENANTS FOR NEW BUILDING Miller, Stewart & Beaton and O'Donahue & Redmond Lease Sunderland-Webster Structure.

by Miller, Stewart & Beaton get the north half of the first four floors and the two entire upper floors of the Webster-Sunderland building for their furniture business. O'Donahue & Redmond, who at present have the dry goods department in the Bennett store, will have the south half of the first four floors and the basement.

The building will be ready for occupancy July 1, 1906. It will stand at the northeast corner of Sixteenth and Howard streets and will be 132 feet square and six stories in Mr. O'Donahoe stated that the rumor that Marshall Field of Chicago is identified with O'Donahoe and Redmond is entirely

Johnson Institute, 515 N.Y. Life bldg. Tel.1684 -383 unfounded. "The members of the firm are D. J. O'Donahoe and Thomas P. Redmond, and no others are interested," he said. REFUGE FOR BOSTON GREEN Veteran Police Court Habitue May Be Sent to Asylum as Dipsomaniae. Thursday afternoon Sergeant Whalen of the police court filed with Clerk of the District Court Broadwell a complaint charging Boston Green with habitual drunkenness, which brings the veteran police court character under the provisions of the recently enacted dipsomaniac law.

Thursday afternoon Boston Green said he wished he might be sent to some institution, as anything would be better than spending his nights and part of his days in a hard cell at the city jail. Green has been arrested by the local police one or more times a week for the last twenty-two years, and the chances are now he will not be seen around his old haunts for some time to come. He is nearly 65 years of age, according to the best calculations of historians. CARLOAD OF STONE STOLEN Street Paving Material Belonging to John Grant is Politely

Hauled Away. Stone-a whole carload of it-was stolen from John Grant, the paying contractor, Wednesday and with the present stringent condition of the stone market he is anything but happy. The stone was crushed and with several other carloads had been dumped on California street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, in anticipation of the Seventeenth street paving for which Mr. Grant's firm has a contract. Progress of the paving on Capitol avenue caused the man who formerly watched the stone to be transferred and the crushed rock was left unguarded. During the day men and wagons descended and carted away the precious stuff. Grant has no clew. He is more angry with the nerve of the thieves than the actual loss. MOVE TO SELL PARKS OFF Scheme of Getting Boulevards and Other Resorts is Dropped

"The leaders in the movement to sell Fontanelle and Elmwood parks and apply the money for the construction of boulevards and laying out neighborhood parks have dropped the scheme for the present," said Sam Rothwell of the Clifton Hill Improvement club. "The proposition has stirred up a good deal of opposition, but the people who want to see the north-end boulevards and small parks put in are not discouraged. They are now talking up a new scheme which would be based on the issue of from $50,000 to $100,000 bonds to Men Wanted in Wayne.

John Copeland and Dan Black, the men arrested Tuesday evening by Officer Mansfield at Thirteenth and Mason streets and booked at the city jail as suspicous characters, are said to be the pair who recently stole considerable jewelry from the farmers in Wayne county. Sheriff Means wired the authorities that he will come after the prisoners Thursday afternoon. At the time of the arrest of the men in Omaha they were trying to dispose of a lot of jewelry.

Cannot Explain Injury.

About midnight Wednesday Officer Morrison found Henry Rue lying on the pavement at Thirteenth and Howard streets, in an unconecious condition and with an ugly scalp wound. The injured man was hurried to the police Station, where he was attended by Police Surgeons Langdon and Cox. The scalp wound was three inches long and was inflicted when the man struck his head on the curbing, in a manner, however, he is unable to explain. Rue is a porter in a saloon. After spending the night at the police station he was able to proceed to his home unattended.
